Press release

My Airport, Aéroports de Paris free Iphone application ranked among the "TOP 100 best applications for Iphone and IPod touch"

Among the 100,000 applications proposed for Iphone, My Airport, Aéroports de Paris' free application ranked among the Top100 best applications, according to ICreate, Mac, Ipod et iPhone's users magazine. My airport was represented among the best five applications for travel selected by the magazine.

"Since its launch this summer, My Airport has been downloaded more than 50, 000 times. Drawing on this success, our teams are already working on a new version of the application. Soon, thanks to the use of mobile terminals, our clients will be able to find their way easily at our airports and will have access to all our service offers" stated François Rubichon, Deputy Chief Executive Officer of Aéroports de Paris.

Available at Apple Store, My Airport offers a new complimentary real time information service to Paris airports clients:

- Arriving and departing flight times for Paris-Charles de Gaulle and Paris-Orly airports,
- listing of all the airlines operating at Paris airports, with their reservation center,
- information about access and car parks,
- useful services (emergency numbers, location of Tourist information areas...),
- business services (lounges, work areas, business center or car rental),
- formalities area.

Thanks to the geolocation, the application offers an itinerary calculation to help users to get to the airport of their choice.

The application is ideal to find out about last minute flight schedule changes, to find the closest car park to a terminal, an airline telephone number or to be guided towards a selected airport!

Owners of a mobile phone connected to the Internet will also be offered a new mobile service. To get connected : <http://mobile.aeroportsdeparis.fr>
