Aéroports de Paris: September 2007 traffic figures

Passenger traffic figures

In September 2007, Aéroports de Paris handled 7.7 million passengers, an increase of 5.4% on September 2006. Paris-Charles de Gaulle airport recorded a gain of 6.1% to 5.4 million passengers and Paris-Orly airport was up 3.9% to 2.3 million passengers.

This month's figures were boosted by the traffic growth within the European Union and on international routes. These results are notably influenced by the impact of the World Rugby Cup with an increase in traffic on some routes (compared with September 2006): South Africa +5%; Argentina +27%; Great Britain +5% and Ireland +27%.

Domestic traffic fell by 1.6%. European traffic grew by 8.5% thanks to Schengen traffic (10.4%) and the British and Irish markets which increased by 9.3%. Traffic on routes to and from the twelve¹ new European Union members rose by 4.3%.

Traffic on the other international routes reached a 5.7% increase. The North and Latin American market rose by 6.7%. A 5.9% increase was recorded on routes to and from Asia and the Middle East. The African market rose by 4.4%.
