New service : Aéroports de Paris launches lounge reservations on www.aeroportsdeparis.fr website

As from October 5, Aéroports de Paris will be offering its clients a new lounge reservation service on www.aeroportsdeparis.fr website. In a first step, passengers departing from Paris-Orly South terminal (non-Schengen routes) will have access to the Icare lounge. This offer will then be extended to the other lounges of Aéroports de Paris.

Services offered in Aéroports de Paris lounges:

- dedicated staff
- bar, with drinks and snacks
- national and international press & television
- work areas equipped with computers
- Wifi, free internet access and telephone (Paris and Paris region)
- flight information screens

Fee : 30 euros per person

"Lounge reservation on our website aeroportsdeparis.fr allows all our clients to benefit from services usually offered to First and Business class passengers. This new offer adds up to our on-line services, such as Parking Premium, SMS Info vol ou SMS Info trajet, which make travel easier and more pleasant." declares François Rubichon, Deputy CEO of Aéroports de Paris.

The Icare lounge

The Icare lounge, inaugurated in February 2007, was up to now reserved to Business and First class passengers. This 260 sq meter lounge is now open to all passengers travelling from terminal South on non-Schengen flights and wishing to have a comfortable private area to work or to relax.
