

Paris, 31 March 2010

An Invitation for your taste buds: Aéroports de Paris and La Maison du Chocolat celebrate Easter at Paris-Charles de Gaulle airport

Good news for passengers with a sweet tooth! Aéroports de Paris and La Maison du Chocolat celebrate Easter by distributing over 15,000 chocolates in terminals 2 E and 2 F of Paris Charles de Gaulle airport.

Hostesses will greet passengers and enable them to discover or rediscover a selection of chocolate and ganache developed by this prestigious company. They will be able to taste plain ganache under a thin crackly coating of dark chocolate, a combination of cocoas whose woody and fruity aromas take you on a trip to the heart of the cacao plantations.

A second La Maison du Chocolat boutique opening in Paris-Charles de Gaulle:

This exceptional distribution is part of the brand's development in the Paris airports. La Maison du Chocolat will be celebrating the first anniversary of the boutique opened in terminal 2E last April. Based on its success, Aéroports de Paris and La Maison du Chocolat have decided to open a second boutique in terminal 2F.

Beginning 1st April, this new shop, located in the Schengen area of terminal 2F, will enable passengers to experience a privileged moment of sensory and taste discovery in an elegant and refined environment.

www.aeroportsdeparis.fr

Press contact: Christine d'Argentré : +33 1 43 35 70 70 – Investor Relations: Florence Dalon : +33 1 43 35 70 58

Aéroports de Paris builds, develops and manages airports including Paris-Charles de Gaulle, Paris-Orly and Paris-Le Bourget. With 83.0 million passengers handled in 2009, Aéroports de Paris is Europe's second-largest airport group in terms of passenger traffic and the European leader for freight and mail.

With an exceptional geographic location and a major catchment area, the Group is pursuing its strategy of adapting and modernizing its terminal facilities and upgrading quality of services, and also intends to develop its retail and real estate business. In 2009, Aéroports de Paris had revenue of € 2,633,4 million, and a net income of €270 million.