Airport auction sale Rêves association reminds participants of modalities

Registrations to take part in this exceptional sale are closed

Only people with a bidding number can take part in the auction

The first charity auction sale of plane tickets organised by Rêves association will take place on June 20, from 9 a.m. till noon, in Terminal 3 at Paris-Charles de Gaulle airport.

A total of 1,200 registered people with a bidding number, a pre-requisite, will take part in this auction sale.

« We thank all the people who expressed an interest in this operation. To welcome participants in the best conditions, only people with a bidding number can access the sale», declares Olivier Bererd, Director General of Rêves association.

Besides the five historical partners of the project (Air Tahiti Nui, easyJet, SAS Scandinavian Airlines, SriLankan Airlines and XL Airways France), Rêves association announces two new partners, Club Med Voyages-Aéroports de Paris.com travel agency which joined to enhance the offer. They propose prestigious lots: 3 luxury stays (Morocco, Bahamas and Thailand) offered by Club Med and an exceptional round the world trip offered Voyages-Aéroports de Paris.com agency.
