Aéroports de Paris opens a left luggage service at Paris-Charles de Gaulle airport

Today Aéroports de Paris is opening a centralized left luggage service at Paris-Charles de Gaulle airport, in partnership with Bagages du Monde. Located in the airport's public area, just outside the CDGVAL automated train station "Terminal 2 Gare" and close to the RER commuter train station, this left luggage service allows passengers from all terminals of Paris-Charles de Gaulle airport to drop off their bags for a short, medium or long period.

Open every day from 6:00 to 21:30, the bag storage facility provides several services, such as:

- secure luggage storage with X-ray scan,
- transport of excess luggage as air freight,
- transport of bags within France (pick-up/delivery),
- express transport (urgent letters, small parcels, bags),
- handling of excess luggage,
- sale of accessories (padlocks, etc.) and bags.

Left luggage rates

Very short term	Less than 6 hours	6 euros per bag
Short term	6 to 12 hours	12 euros per bag
Medium term	12 to 24 hours	15 euros per bag
Long term	First 24 hours	15 euros per bag
	Day 2, 3, 4	7.50 euros per bag
	From day 5	5 euros per day per bag

In addition, Bagages du Monde operates two counters to handle excess luggage, near the airline check-in counters. They are located in terminal 2A (entrance 3) and terminal 1 (entrance 14).
